

February

at the Riverview Library

Love your library!

And, your place in space! There are so many lovely events happening this month at the RVML! We are celebrating Valentine's Day with an all-ages storytime! There will be stories, games, a craft and a yummy snack. We are also welcoming two wonderful local authors to our library to talk about their love for the history of Detroit and Michigan. A long-time friend of the RVML will be visiting with her robotics team for a fun, interactive event for the whole family! We are also thrilled to be starting our Adulting 101 series this month! Participants will learn how to thread and knot a needle, sew on a button and fix a loose hem. We hope that you will visit us soon & often! Happy Reading!
