Celebrate Your Place In Space!

Happy 2019! The RVML wishes our community a happy, healthy and prosperous new year. Taking inspiration from the American Library Association's summer reading theme of "Space", we are celebrating our place on the globe all year long. We are showing our appreciating for all of the amazing people, communities and organizations that surround us by offering new programming each month, regularly adding great new resources to our shelves and changing our hours to better accommodate patron needs. As always, your library card gives you free access to millions of books, DVDs, eBooks as well as complimentary Wi-Fi and computer use. We hope that you will visit us soon & often! Happy Reading!
